

Connect the dots

Tune in with your pup

About 8% of dogs tested with Embark love to watch TV whenever it's on. As it turns out, dogs can recognize images on a television screen. The image may be colored a bit differently or move at a different speed than what a human sees, though. Naturally, dogs are more likely to pay attention to the TV if they hear or see another dog on screen.

